2007-2008 Subscription Season

“Comedy Tonight! (and matinees, too)”

Burbank, CA

Producer/Director Garry Marshall has formally announced the sixth subscription series, “Comedy Tonight! (and matinees, too)” to be presented at his FALCON THEATRE in Burbank, California. The series will feature five plays, all comedies, including two World Premieres.

The Falcon Theatre’s 2007-2008 subscription series begins with a jump! All poor Bob wants to do is jump out the window, but first he’ll have to go through Heaven and Hell in the metaphysical farce, LEAP. Next, television, film and Broadway veteran Carol Burnett stars as an under-qualified life coach counseling three crazy couples in the World Premiere of Charles Grodin’s WHAT’S BEEN BOTHERING YOU LATELY? For the holidays, The Troubadour Theater Company returns to the Falcon with their latest yuletide musical parody, A CHARLIE JAMES BROWN CHRISTMAS. Following the Troubies, another Falcon favorite, Granville Van Dusen, will delight audiences with his critically acclaimed one-man show, THE MEMOIRS OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN. The Falcon will conclude its sixth season with a show that can only be described as “indescribable,” as it is still To Be Announced.
